Notes for ELOTIA CHANDLER:

Lucy J. Chandler appears on 1870 census as Lucy J. age 8 in the family of Martin and Ann Stevens Chandler. According to "The Basket Letters" page 136, there were six children in the Martin Chandler family, and we have a recent Basket Letter from one daughter, Mrs. Elotia Broughton of Walton....

Eventually I met and married Riley Broughton. I was married at Long Eddy January 18, 1879. My father was Martin Chandler and I am a cousin of Mrs. Ruth Felter.

On the 1880 census she appears as Elotia age 18 wife of Riley Broughton in Hancock, Delaware Co., NY. My guess would be that she was nicknamed "Lucy" but went by her given name when she married. The ages on 1870 and 1880 census would seem to verify this.

298. "Hancock Herald - 9 August 1928," Death - Nelson Chandler, Nelson Chandler, a North Woods guide, died at Woodgate last Friday night, following an operation. Mr. Chandler had started for Hancock to attend the annual reunion of the Chandler family at Hancock today. When he arrived at Woodgate, a swelling accompanied by intense pain, developed in his right side. A physician, who was consulted, decided that an operation was necessary to afford relief. When the incision was made it was found the trouble was caused by a ruptured blood vessel. Mr. Chandler grew rapidly worse, and died, as stated above. Deceased, who was about 76 years old, was born in the town of Hancock. His wife died several years ago. Charles and William Clark and Lyman Chandler and wife of Hancock, nephews, attended the funeral, held at Woodgate Tuesday last at 1:30 P.M. Interment at Woodgate.
