Bassett, secretary and treasurer of the Cole Manufacturing Company, came to Memphis in 1857 and engaged in the lumber business until the commencement of the war. He was connected with Baxter & Rose. In 1861 he enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifty-fourth Senior Tennessee Regiment, Confederate States Army, and served with credit until the cessation of hostilities, when he returned to Memphis and accepted a clerkship with M.E. and J.W. Cochran in the lumber trade, and continued until 1870 and then became agent for the Memphis Woodworks Manufacturing Company, but quit in 1874 when that company was burned out. January 1, 1875, he formed a partnership with C.B. Moore, under the style of Moore, Bassett & Co.,

which partnership expired January 1, 1880, when a connection was formed with the Cole Manufacturing Company, which still continues. Our subject was born February 5, 1837, in Delaware County, N.Y., and is one of a family of fifteen children of Cornelius and Elizabeth (Cushing) Bassett, the mother being a niece of Hon. Caleb Cushing . They were married at Schenectady, N.Y. The father was a participant in the battles on the lakes during the war of 1812, and was a member of the State Legislature in 1836-37. He died in 1864 and lies buried in the same cemetery as Washington Irving. The mother died when our subject was a child. (I can't find his burial in Sleepy Hollow, NH) The latter graduated at Columbia College, New York, in 1854, (Columbia College doesn't have any record.) and was for short time engaged in the grain trade in the Upper Mississippi Valley. July 3, 1866, he was married Miss Lucretia Lockwood, a native of Iowa, and to these parents eight children have been born, one son and two daughters still living. Mr. Bassett is a Democrat, and is a member of the F.& A.M., K. of P., K. of H. orders, and he and family are members of the Episcopal Church. <http://www.rootsweb.com/~tnshelby/goodspd-b.htm>

! I have a letter from Clara Bush dated 28 August 1928, outlining the Bassett Family, which she says the information was given to her by Reuben C. Bassett.

! 1887 GOODSPEED'S HISTORY OF HAMILTON, KNOX AND SHELBY COUNTIES OF TENNESSEE (1887) G.T. Bassett, secretary and treasurer of the Cole Manufacturing Company, came to Memphis in 1857 and engaged in the lumber business until the commencement of the war. He was connected with Baxter & Rose. In 1861 he enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifty-fourth Senior Tennessee Regiment, Confederate States Army, and served with credit until the cessation of hostilities, when he returned to Memphis and accepted a clerkship with M.E. and J.W. Cochran in the lumber trade, and continued until 1870 and then became agent for the Memphis Woodworks Manufacturing Company, but quit in 1874 when that company was burned out. January 1, 1875, he formed a partnership with C.B. Moore, under the style of Moore, Bassett & Co., which partnership expired January 1, 1880, when a connection was formed with the Cole Manufacturing Company, which still continues. Our subject was born February 5, 1837, in Delaware County, N.Y., and is one of a family of fifteen children of Cornelius and Elizabeth (Cushing) Bassett, the mother being a niece of Hon. Caleb Cushing . They were married at Schenectady, N.Y. The father was a participant in the battles on the lakes during the war of 1812, and was a member of the State Legislature in 1836-37. He died in 1864 and lies buried in the same cemetery as Washington Irving. The mother died when our subject was a child. The latter graduated at Columbia College, New York, in 1854, and was for short time engaged in the grain trade in the Upper Mississippi Valley. July 3, 1866, he was married Miss Lucretia Lockwood, a native of Iowa, and to these parents eight children have been born, one son and two daughters still living. Mr. Bassett is a Democrat, and is a member of the F.& A.M., K. of P., K. of H. orders, and he and family are members of the Episcopal Church. <http://www.rootsweb.com/~tnshelby/goodspd-b.htm>

In Feb 2005 I contacted Columbia College and the Columbia Grammar and Prep School and both say they don't have the early records of their alumni.
