FIFTH GENERATION

16. John CARRINGTON was born in 1602 in England. He died in 1690 in Farmington, Hartford Co. Ct.. The name Carrington is believed to have been derived from the residence of its first bearers, in Carrington, Chester County, England. It is found in Ancient English and early American records in the variant spellings of Carrynton, Carrinton, Carinton, Carynton, Carington, Carrington, and others, of which the form last mentioned is that which is most generally used in America today. Families of this name were resident at dates in English Counties of Chester, Lincoln, York, Hertford, Essex, Buckingham, Leicester, Warwick, and London. They were for the most part, of landed gentry and nobility of the British Isles. Carrington, John b 1602 England. John Carrington, a carpenter, with his wife Joane, came to Wethersfield-Hartford Co. Ct. before 1643.

DEED: 03-08-1647 Wethersfield-Hartford Co. Ct. It was orig. Edward Vere's lot, boarded north by highway, east by a common, south by a swamp, west by a swamp. Later 2 1/2 acres was sold to widow of Leonard Chester, resided next door west of Robert Francis on Sandy Lane. In 1652 John Carrington sold 1/2 acre of land with a cellar on it to Samuel Martin. In 1649 the town gave him a home lot of 30 rods.

They had a homestead on Sandy Lane, near the corner of Fort St. Carrington was probably a somewhat lawless man, for in 1650 he had been fined 10 Lbs for "barting a gun with an Indian." In March, 1651, he and his wife were indicted separately for witchcraft, the charge was in the usual form, that, "Thou hast entertained familiarith with Sathan, the greate enemy of God and mankinde; and by his helpe thou has done workes above the course of nature; for which, both according to the lawe of God and the lawe of this Common wealth, thou deservest to die." The unfortunate culprits were convicted; and the husband certainly, and the wife, probably executed. The Court, administering upon Carrington's estate, directed that the inventory thereof be filed, but not recorded. A John Carrington emigrated from England to America in 1635 with his wife Mary _____ both 33 years of age and settled first at Wetherfield-Hartford Co. Ct. Some historians believe that he was identical with that of John Carrington who settled at Farmington and then at Waterbury, New Haven Co., Ct., where he died in 1690, but it is more probable that this John of Farmington, Hartford Co., Ct. and Waterbury, Newhaven Co, Conn. was the son of the immigrant John Carrington who came from England to America in 1635 with his wife Mary _____. One writer states that John of Farmington and Waterbury had brothers named as follows: Ebenezer. Samuel and Ezekiel Carrington.

The material continues as follows: John Carrington was an early settler in Farmington, and one of the "eighty-four proprietors" in 1672. He signed the articles for the settlement of Mattatuck, Waterbury, in 1674 and appears to have joined the new plantation early; for he is named in all the divisions of fences. It appears that for some cause he did not fully comply with the conditions of the new plantation covenant and was consequently declared to have forfeited his rights, Feb. 6, 1682. But little is known of him. He moved to Waterbury in early 1690. He died in the early part of 1690, leaving a widow who died before the inventory of his effects was rendered, June 30 1690. John Carrington's house lot of two acres was on West Main St., at the south side, about where Lavenworth Street now runs. It was bounded north and south on the highway, east on timothy stanley, west on George Scott. It was sold in 1710 by the heirs to Timothy Stanley and George Scott.

Will: 06-30-1690 Waterbury, New Haven, Co. Ct. .Children John age 23, Mary 18, Hannah 15, Clark 12, Elizabeth 8, Ebenezer 3 years. "Early Families of Wallingford Connecticut" by Charles Henry Stanley Davis, Baltimore, Genealogical Publishing Co. Inc. 1979 copy in State Library in Albany, N.Y. pg. 60 as follows:

CARRINGTON

This family is one of great antiquity. Sir Michael Carrington, who was a standard bearer to Richard I., 1189 is the first of whom I find any record. His grandson Sir William Carrington was an officer under Edward I., 1272-1307 Sir Edmund Carrington, Kt, was an officer under Edward II., 1307-27. Sir William Carrington, Kt. Temp. of Edward III 1327-77 Sir Thomas Carrington, Kt., Steward (of the household) to Edward III, was the father of John Carrington who in the beginning of the reign of Henry IV for his adherence to Richard II (who was deposed) was compelled to flee from his country and on returning assumed for disguise the name of Smith. He died in 1446 and was the father of Hugh (Carrington) Smith, who appears to have been the father of (1445-1500) Sir John Carrington Smith, Baron of the Exchequer, temp. Henry VIII., whose fourth son (1509-47) Francis (Carrington) Smith of Ashely Tolville, Leicester, was the great grandfather of Charles (Carrington) Smith, who was created Oct. 31 1643, Lord C——, Baron of “Wotton Warren” in Warwickshire, 4th of Nov. following Viscount Carrington in the Peerage of Ireland, was murdered by his valet at Pontoise in France, Feb 21, 1664 and was succeeded by Francis Carrington Smith, 2d Baron and Viscount. He died in 1705. Charles his son died young in may 1706. The title and honor thus became extinct.

Lucinda Fox was 69 years old when she married Jeremiah Carrington and the name Fox may have been from her 1st marriage.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Jeremiah Wheaton CARRINGTON was born on Aug 12 1824 in Delaware Co. N.Y. Near Ouleout&. He was buried in 1915 in Susquehanna, Pa. Grand St. Cem.. He died in Apr 1915 in Susquehanna, Pa. J. W. Carrington Established Farm in Susquehanna County. Jeremiah Wheaton Carrington (1824-1915) was born near Franklin N.Y. in Delaware County. He came to the Susquehanna, Pennsylvania area sometime in the early 1850's and purchased property on what is know known as the "Brushville Road". He was a carpenter by trade and here he built his home and he and his wife raised a family of six children: Eugenia, Melvina, Eva, Cora, Delos and Leslie. Over the years, large barns were built and the house enlarged to become a very attractive two family dwelling.

Jeremiah's sons, Delos E. and Leslie eventually took over the farm. They formed a partnership in a venture which became quite a prosperous truck garden business known as Carrington Brothers. They supplied garden produce to the local stores and residents and were well known in the area for their strawberries. They also maintained large hot beds where plants were grown for their own use and for sale. Upon the retirement of Leslie Carrington, Delos Carrington continued the business with his son J. Delos (Lossie). Leslie Carrington built a fine residence on Riverside Drive in Susquehanna, Pa. and made his home there.

After the death of Delos Carrington in 1931, his son (Lossie) continued to operate the farm. In the early 1940's he sold the property to George and Muriel Washburn Wanatt. Today, most of the barns and out buildings are gone, but the house still stands. Though somewhat altered in appearance from the original building, it is well maintained by members of the Wanatt family who still own and reside on the property. 2/94 J.G.S.
