Dear Readers,

William Taylor Russell was the son of Hester Taylor and William Russell, son of Janet Pomphrey and William Russell, our earliest identified Russell ancestor.

The majority of the information regarding the descendants of Janet Pomphrey or Pumphrey or Pumprey and William Russell has been furnished by Ida (Gladstone) Hanna, Edwin Russell, and David F. Hoy from his manuscript entitled Russell Family of Bovina, New York. Ida's picture has been hanging in my parents' house as long as I can remember. The picture is of a Russell reunion which took place about 1900-1901 and my father as a lad of about six years is in the front row of the picture as is Ida Hanna. A copy of this picture is being reproduced in this compilation and Ida Hanna has been responsible for identifying many of the persons in the picture. If you can identify someone else, please let me know immediately. Ida also furnished the copy of the photograph of William Taylor Russell. If any of you have any pictures of the generations prior to 1900, would appreciate having a copy to place in the finalized compilation on the Russell family of Delaware Co., New York.

I am using the Henry genealogical numbering system which I find the easiest for me to understand. I am going to assign the generation number of three to William Russell, our earliest known ancestor at this time, because I doubt very much if we will be able to go back any further than his grandfather if that far back. Therefore, William Russel(l) born 1733 is 3 and his fifth child, my ancestor, William Russell is fifth in his generation and is numbered 35 and 35 William Russell's first child, about whom we know, is my ancestor William Taylor Russell and he is numbered then 351. Dates are written 7Oct1990 without spaces. Periods are eliminated from abbreviations, to wit: 351 WILLIAM TAYLOR RUSSELL b 4July1820 Delaware Co NY d 27Nov1906 Walton Delaware County NY bur old Goldsmith Graveyard on 6Jan1848 Hamden Delaware Co NY m ANGELINE SWART b ca 1820 d prior to 1860 d/o POLLY BEEMAN and WILLIAM SWART.

I am also attempting to set out information in a chronological sequence. Abbreviations will be used whenever possible. There will be an index. When you send your additions/corrections, please refer to the person by his or her number, as the page numbers will change as I make changes or additions to this family history.

As information was obtained regarding the Russell families in Delaware Co., New York, it has become obvious that there were at least three separate Russell families living there in the early 1800's. Linda Lohrum sent copies of the Bible records of her grandfather Matthew Delos Russell, descendant of Sarah [Inu] and James Russell. The death dates of James 13 May 1809 and Sarah in 9 Aug 1813 as relect of James were the first names recorded in this Bible under deaths. . David Hoy, early Delaware Co. NY Historian, wrote in 1920 that there was another Russell family besides that of my ancestor William Russell who married Janet Pumphrey and whose family Edwin S. Russell located in parish records in Ayr Co. Scotland. David Hoy named them as James, Matthew, Agnes/Nancy, Stephen and Elizabeth. Since these names are the same as those in the family of William Russell who married Janet Pomphrey, had to make concentrated search to identify all of these Russells. The first chapter pertains to my ancestors Janet Pomphrey and William Russell and their descendants. Chapter Two pertains to Sarah [last name] unknown and James Russell and their descendants. Chapter III pertains to Christian/Christina Reid and James Russell b 1790 Scotland.

Then I corresponded with Kim DePew, 2804 Whitewood, Midland, MI 48642 517-837-9509 e-mail Midland

Mom@aol. com., also a descendant of Matthew Russell born 1774, son of Sarah [Inu] and James Russell died 1809. Kim shared some very important information. A letter from James Russell in Scotland dated 13 February 1801 to his sons James, Matthew and Stephen indicating that Stephen must have arrived in Delaware Co. later than James and Matthew. Also stated he was planning to come to his sons in April and that Uncle William with his numerous family would be coming with him. This letter asks the question, could this Uncle William be William Russell who married Jane Pomphrey. Kim, wrote in part:

“ The following records were given to me from Miss Birdsall of Walton, Delaware County, NY. Her friend, Mabel Davis had been working on the Russell families for quite some time, as she also, was a descendant of the Russell family. The Bible pages were torn out of Bibles that she had owned, and given to me. Following letter also from Mabel Davis, through Miss Birdsall, her friend to me after Mable died.

This is an old letter addressed to Messrs. James & Matthew Russell in Stamford, County of Delaware, State of New York and care of: Samuel Hickt's, North America. February 13th 1801.

Dear Sons James & Matthew & Stephen;

I embrace this opportunity of the HURON, an American ship returning to New York, to inform you that we are all in good health, as also your concerns & acquaintance.

We rec'd yours both on the 23rd January, the very day a twelve month ago that we rec'd your former letter & were made glad by the information of your welfare, increase of family, prosperity and of Stephen's arrival.

As I intend by the middle of April or soon after that to take shipping for your place, you need not expect any more notice from me in an ordinary way until I bring it myself, I cannot as yet say whether any other of the family will accompany me or not, only Uncle William and his family will come and for his accommodation he desires you will prepare a temporary habitation for him on some convenient spot, as his family is rather numerous. (other side of paper) for going in with another family, likewise your friend JOHN ORR will accompany me.

Public matters in this place look no better, Markit's at an exorbitant price, Trading declining. I shall do as you directed in your letter as far as I can do.

I now conclude earnestly desiring you make a study to obtain an interest in the Covenant of Grace for your happiness in time and eternity and that you petition God's correction and protection for me in my Journey to you as intended.

I remain in love and affection for you all, Your aged father James Russell (at the bottom of the letter we find this note)

My dear James Russell, My remembrance of you is still fresh and savory in my breast, both on your account and on my much respected and faithful friend, your father's account(with whom I will be sorry to part) the joyfulest account that will ever reach me will be that you are as a member of Christ's family, a pattern of sobriety and holiness in your family and might our Lord a zealous and unfeigned Christian in personal and social life. My wife desires you to let nothing in this world mar the service of the Lord and remember that as the Lord has carried you over the seas you must join in ___with ___ of the land where you are. We join in our respects for you and your wife, your children and brethren,

Rob't. and Jannet Cutherson.”

Your compiler has studied and studied this letter and in trying to analyze what it might have meant and wonder if “ Uncle William” was a brother of the aging James Russell or of his sons? Why would James use the term Uncle if William were a son of his. Let us look at the ages of William Russell who is supposed to have died at the age of 95 years and therefore born about 1733. He married Janet/Janette Pomprey/Pumphrey. His first child according to the parish records was Janet born in 1783 so he evidently married late in life and was about fifty when she was born and last child Matthew was born in 1795. According to the Delaware Co. NY census, Stephen, son of Sarah and James Russell, was born about 1763 and his brother James about 1772 and we know Matthew was born in 1774. So if the census is correct, and Stephen was the first child of the marriage, James would probably be born before 1745 if he were married at the age of 18 but the men seemed to marry later in Scotland, so speculate that he could have been married when twenty to twenty five then he would have been born 1738 to 1745 and earlier if he were older when he married. So it is possible that the Uncle William whom James wrote about whose family was numerous could be the older brother of James who died 1809 and the William who married Janet Pomphrey. This is pure speculation and more research in Scotland needs to be done to try to find the family of Sarah and James Russell in Scotland. But can be a clue to the parentage of William Russell who was born about 1733.

Then Kim sent me her family history pertaining to the descendants of Matthew Russell, son of Sarah and James Russell, in which she shows that the father of James Russell died 13 May 1809 was a James Russell and his father was Matthew Russell. Your compiler queried Kim as to where she obtained this information and on 5 August 2002, Kim answered by e-mail.

"Yes, I have James Russell (d. 15May1809) as the grandson of Matthew Russell. I was shown a book which belonged to Matthew which was passed down thru the Roswell B. Russell line. In it was written that this book was given to Matthew by his grandfather, Matthew Russell. Did I send the copy to you? I will do that if I haven't.
5. This is the source for the 3 sons: From Don Pratt (Mardontpa@aol.com) on 9-13-99"

Note: If further research proves that James died 1809 and William born 1733 and died 28 July 1828 were brothers then will have to combine Chapters One and Two as descendants of James and Matthew. Have asked Kim to send copies of this information. 7 August 2002

Cordially yours,

Mrs. Gene McCraw

These county histories published by Munsell are invaluable to the genealogical researcher. Salesman canvassed the counties and obtained histories from various families and historians and then, of course, sold the histories to the county residents. The histories give us such an insight into the lives of the early settlers.

34 James Russell

35 William Russell

36 Matthew Russell

[The latest letter I have from Ed Russell dated 24May1984 states: "I have not been able to extend the William Russell or Janet Pomphrey lines back another generation. I found a baptism for a Janet Pumphrey 2Dec1758 in Glasford Lanark Scotland. Relationship not proven. Pomphrey name also occurs in East Kilbride parish (Lanarkshire.) RUSSELL name is very prevalent in that same area east and southeast of Glasgow but I have never found anything I could connect." All of the above information was furnished by Ed Russell. Also, the names, birth dates, birth place and marriages of the children of Janet Pomphrey and William Russell. Ed located these in the copy of the parish register for Loudoun, Ayr, Scotland on LDS Microfilm. cjmc]

From the Delaware County Biographical Review in a biographical sketch of a grandson of William and Janet Pomphrey, we learn more about the emigrant ancestor, WILLIAM RUSSELL:

"The grandfather of Stephen Russell, and the founder of this branch of the Russell family in America, was William Russell, a Scotch farmer who came to America in 1800, and settled in Bovina, NY., where a grandson, Andrew T., brother of Stephen, now resides.

The two hundred acres of ground purchased by the emigrant was forest land; and the abundance of deer, bears, wolves and small game gave food to the settlers and furnished skins for traffic in the Catskill market, sixty two miles distant. The nearest mill was six miles away from the log house of the emigrant, who would shoulder the grist, and walk the distance when the bread supply became nearly exhausted and the housewife clamored for flour. Life in the primitive new settlement, though hard and rough, was healthful; and William Russell lived to be ninety-five years old. The husband and wife followed the faith of their fathers, and lived and died in the faith of the Presbyterian church. Their five children are all now dead."

From the Biographical Review - The Leading Settlers of Delaware County, NY in the 9th section at page 406 in the biographical sketch of grandson, Andrew Thomson Russell, we learn more about this immigrant ancestor:

"ANDREW THOMSON RUSSELL, a Delaware County dairyman of Scotch ancestry, occupies the farm in Bovina on which he was born, and which includes the tract of land cleared by his paternal grandfather, William Russell, in the early part of the century. William Russell was born near Glasgow, Scotland; and he and his wife, who was Scotch, emigrated to America in 1800, and settled here in the primeval forest. His first work was to cut down the trees whose stout trunks were to be fashioned into a rude abode for his wife and children. The game that dwelt about the very threshold of the cabin furnished food for the hungry little mouths. There was at the time no roads cut through the woods, still haunted by wolves and bears; and the journey to the mill at South Kortright, now known as Almeda, a distance of five miles, which the sturdy pioneer sometimes made, carrying the grain on his back, the path being indicated only by blazed trees, was both toilsome and perilous. William Russell died here June 28, 1828, aged ninety-five years and four months, leaving five sons □ John, Stephen, James, William, Matthew and one daughter. His wife, Janet Pumphry, was born in 1750 and died May 30, 1827."

U.S. 1810 census Delhi Delaware Co. NY enumerated at page 430 and enumerated as the 20st person visited:
William Russell with

1 male (10-16) b 1794-1800 (Matthew b 1795)

4 males (16-26) b 1784-1794 (Stephen b 1784, John b 1786, James 1790, William b 1792)

1 male (45+) b before 1765 (William b 1733)

1 female (45+) b before 1765. (Janet b ca 1755)

Note: [There is another William Russel listed in Walton but listed with four males b 1800-1810, 1 male b 1794-1800, three males b 1784-1794 which does not match our William's family at all. A close neighbor of William's in Delhi is listed as Elisha Fuller with a family and the eldest male was b 1765-1784 with three other younger males. A granddaughter Deborah Russell married an Elisha Fuller and I wonder if he were a son or grandson of this Elisha Fuller. cjm]c]

U.S. 1820 Census Bovina Delaware Co. NY At page 75 is enumerated William Russell with one male born before 1755 and one female born before 1755.

[This compiler has never researched the deed nor probate records for this family in Delaware Co. NY as I have not had time to do so. I plan to do this before completing this compilation. 6Oct1990. cjm]c]

Carol,

My son is descended from Janet Pomphrey and William Russell through 32631 Sarah Isabel Russell. Sarah was an only child and she wanted a large family. Sarah and Robert had 14 children. One of the daughters Catharine "Kitty" Gemmel first married William Henry Van Wagner. Both are deceased. Ey had two children, one daughter still living and one son deceased William Clarence Van Wagner. This is my son's father. My son is the last to carry on this Van Wagner line. My son's father died while my son was only four months old. And by a later e-mail, Kathy sent the following:

This is what I have on descendants of Sarah Isabel RUSSELL.

Herbert Robinson Passes away

Herbert A. Robinson, a resident of Sidney since 1887, passed away Tuesday morning at his home on Avery Street. He had been in poor health for some time. Born in Cadosia, Nov. 29, 1862, the son of Frank and Hattie (Williams) Robinson, he married Miss Hattie Russell of Hancock in September, 1889; who has since passed away. Mr. Robinson was a member of the Masonic Order for 51 years and also had a lifetime membership in the Odd Fellows lodge. He had served as village trustee for 2 terms. He is survived by 1 brother, Miles, of Norwich, and a cousin, Howard Robinson of Roscoe, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral Services in charge of Rev. Willard B. Sopor of the Congregational Church, will be held tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the Carr and Landers Funeral Chapel, Interment in Hancock cemetery.

Hattie Russell Robinson

Sidney mourns the death of Hattie Russell Robinson, who passed away at the family Avery Street home Tuesday, 18th inst. But few residents of our village were better known than Mrs. Robinson. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her. During the past several months she had been in ill health, the turn for the worst coming the latter part of last week, death followed on day above mentioned. Mrs. Robinson was born in the town of Tompkins, near Cannonsville August 28, 1869, the daughter of James and Nancy Carpenter Russell. She was united in marriage with Herbert A. Robinson September 25, 1889, in Hancock. Shortly after they came to Sidney to reside. She was a charter member of Sidney Chapter Order of Eastern Star, and had served with credit to her home chapter and self as a local and district officer. She was also an active member of the local W.C.T.U. unit and the American University Club. Mrs. Robinson was deeply interested in civic affairs and had served as a member of the local Republican committee for several years. In the immediate family the deceased is survived by a devoted husband; three sisters, Mrs. Elmer Love of Cannonsville, Mrs. Bertha Fletcher of Union, and Miss Edna Russell of Sidney, also a brother Uyllesses P. Russell of Friendship, NY. Interment in family plot, Riverview cemetery.

From the biography of his grandson Andrew Thomson Russell in the Biographical Review - The Leading Settlers of Delaware County, NY 9th section at page 406, we learn more about James Russell:

James Russell, the third* of this goodly group, was born in Scotland on June 22, 1790, and a lad of ten years when he came to this country with his parents. He was educated in the district schools of the locality, and came into possession of the farm at his father's death. He added largely to the estate, and became quite a man of property. He married Margaret Bryce, who was born in Scotland, February 5, 1796, a daughter of Thomas and Janet (Gilmore) Bryce, the former of whom died February 25, 1813, and the latter, a daughter of John Gilmore, July 11, 1829. The other children of her parents were the following: Agnes, born March 19, 1794; Jean, March 24, 1799; Archibald, August 25, 1801; John, January 6, 1802; Elizabeth, February 20, 1805; Matthew, born January 1807; who died in Libby Prison during the Civil War; Mary, September 2, 1809; Thomas G., April 4, 1812. The wife of Mr. Russell shared his religious faith and creed, both being members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. He had no interest in the political situation of his time, and took no part in the national or local issues. His reasons for thus disfranchising himself, as it were, are indicated in the following Synod's Report on National Reform in 1869: 'Because this nation has steadfastly refused any acknowledgment of the authority of God, of his Son, or of his law,' and because 'A Constitution which ignores the foundations of all political morality cannot be accepted and approved by any Christian people without sin,' and because he holds 'it to be the duty of every citizen of this nation to maintain an active dissent by refusing to incorporate with a government thus constituted.'

James Russell died August 4, 1851. His wife Margaret survived him many years, dying January 15, 1873. Twelve children, all sons, were John, and Andrew, are now living. The record is as follows: William, born December 19, 1814, died February 2, 1892; Thomas B., born August 9, 1816, died April 18, 1881; James G., born April 21, 1818, died January 1 1891; an infant, born May 9, 1820, died unnamed; Archibald B., born August 18, 1821, died February 18, 1868; Stephen, born January 26, 1824; John G., born January 16, 1827; an infant, born and died on December 13, 1829; Matthew, born May 31, 1831, died September 27, 1833; David B., born August 19, 1833, died February 28, 1892; Andrew T., born November 9, 1837; Matthew B., born June 17, 1840, died January 14 1847.

*According to the Old Parish Records, James was the fourth son. cjmc

From the sketch on Stephen, his son, in the BRD:

"His father, James Russell, was born in Ayrshire, Scotland in 1790; and his mother, Margaret (Brice) Russell, was also a native of Scotland. James Russell, the father of Stephen Russell, grew up in Bovina, and was educated in the primitive schools of that early period. He was a successful and prominent man among his neighbors, and a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church."

From Munsell's History of Delaware Co., New York at page 130 under subtitle "The Reformed Presbyterian Church" in the chapter entitled "Town of Bovina", we learn:

"...We have been presented with a list of names recognized among the early settlers of the town who aided in the erection of the stone-church near Andrew T. Russell' s (the old Russell homestead.) [Munsell published in 1880. Cjmc] The following minute is from the records of the congregation: `Bovina, N. Y. June 13th, 1825. The male members of the congregation being present, the meeting was constituted with prayer. John McEvers was chosen chairman and James Miller, sen., was chosen clerk. The following items were agreed to: 1st, that a meeting-house be built with stone, of the following dimensions: Length, 34 feet; width, 24 feet; height, 12, and to have a gallery . 2nd. James Russell, David Ballantine and John Russell are appointed to collect the subscription and superintend the erection of the building..." Some of the familiar names on the list of subscribers for church erection, and also for sustaining the ordinances were Robert Hamilton, William Murray, James Archibald, Andrew Thomson, Thomas Hamilton, James Russell, John Archibald, and John Russell. In 1861, a new church was erected in the village of Brushland and David B. Russell was a member of the session. David B. Russell and Andrew T. Russell were elders in 1865 and members of the session.

[I believe the James Russell Jr. enumerated on page 47 in the U. S. 1820 census is this 34 James Russell. He could have been designated as James Russell Jr. because there was a James Russell Sr. also enumerated in Bovina Delaware Co. NY on the U. S. 1860 census. I believe he was the James Russell who married Nancy Richie. [See Chapter 2] There are five James Russells listed in Delaware Co NY on the U. S. 1820 census. Four of the James Russells have males born between 1775 and 1794. Two in Franklin, one in Kortright and one in Bovina. cjmc]

Quoting from the BRD sketch on Stephen eliminating what has been quoted above regarding his father, James, and our emigrant ancestor, William Russell:

"Stephen Russell, of whom this sketch is intended to be a brief memoir, was born to his parents in Bovina on the 26th day of January 1824....Stephen Russell received his education from the masters in the district school, and lived on his father's farm until he was twenty-one years old. He then went to work for a Mr. William Thompson, with whom he remained nearly two years. His first year's earnings netted him the meager sum of one hundred and eighty dollars. His employer raised his wages during the last nine months of his service; but Stephen Russell had decided to learn a trade which would insure him a competence, and so became a blacksmith under an apprenticeship with Andrew Craig. As soon as he felt himself sufficiently well skilled in his craft, he set up a shop for himself in the village. Here the stroke of his anvil sounded through days of shine and storm; for the smith was an industrious man, and found much work to do. After nine years, however, he sold his shop, and bought a small farm of sixty acres, which he has enlarged by recent additions to its present proportions, two hundred and nine acres. Here he has established a dairy farm, and keeps a herd of fifty five cows, whose average yearly weight of butter is two hundred and seventy five pounds. He has the latest and best machinery for butter-making, and takes the deepest interest in his dairy, which is one of the largest in Bovina.

On November 11, 1850, he was united in wedlock to Mary Armstrong, a native of Bovina. Mrs. Russell's father was born in Washington County, New York and came to Bovina when the town was in its first stage of development. The mother of Mary Armstrong was a Scotch woman. The Armstrongs were members of the United Presbyterian church, and certainly fulfilled the Biblical injunction to 'multiply and replenish the earth'; for out of a family of twelve children, ten grew to maturity. Six of them are now living, namely: John Armstrong, a resident of California; Francis, who lives at the old homestead in Bovina; Elsie, Mrs. David Oliver; Mrs. Mary Russell; Margaret, Mrs. Walter A. Doig; and Ellen J., Mrs. John J. Foster, the latter a resident of Washington County.

To Stephen and Mary Russell seven children have been born, as follows: [Listed above. cjmc]. The parents of this family are in the folds of the Christian faith, being members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. Mr. Russell takes no part in politics, but gives his undivided attention to his work. His hospitality and geniality make him a favorite in the locality in which he lives; and his butter, cream, and milk are well known to the epicures of Delaware County."

"John G. Russell, son of James and grandson of William Russell was born at the Russell homestead in 1827. He was married in 1857 to Margaret, daughter of Andrew Nicol*. Mr. Russell is a dairy farmer on the farm settled by James Thomson. His grandfather was among the Scotch pioneers of 1801, and he left three numerous and prosperous generations of descendants."

From Biographical Review - The Leading Citizens of Delaware County, NY - 9th section at page 406 in the Biography of Andrew Thomson Russell, we learn about him:

"ANDREW THOMSON RUSSELL, a Delaware County dairyman of Scotch ancestry, occupies the farm in Bovina on which he was born, and which includes the tract of land cleared by his paternal grandfather, William Russell, in the early part of the century..." See further information under 3 William Russell and 34 James Russell.

"Andrew T. Russell worked on his father's farm and hired himself out for several years during his youth, earning one hundred and fifty five dollars for his first year's wages. He also worked at the carpenter's trade one year. He was married January 12, 1865, and bought the farm in the spring of that year. The young woman who linked her fate with his was Miss Eliza Jane McLaury, who was born in the town of Davenport, April 23, 1845, a daughter of George H. and Nancy (Cobine) McLaury. George H. McLaury was a native of Kortright, and Mrs. McLaury of Franklin. They reared a family of seven children: George, a farmer in Iowa; Thomas, who died in the Civil War; David, who lives in Delhi; Mrs. Russell; John, a farmer in South Dakota; Samuel, also in South Dakota; and Mrs. Sarah A. Terrell, wife of Thomas Terrell, a baggage-master in Oneonta, N. Y. Andrew T. Russell has lived at the home of his birth, surrounded by all the ties of association and childhood that make a locality dear. He keeps thirty milch cows and has one of the best dairies in the county. The new buildings which he has erected have greatly enhanced the value of the property and the land itself, under intelligent tillage, has been vastly improved.

Six children have blessed the union of Mr. and Mrs. Russell, namely: James J. K., born November 5, 1865, who married Miss Tina L. Doig, and has one daughter Florence Pearl; George T. born September 19, 1868; Nettie A., born October 18, 1870; Andrew G. born March 22, 1872; Samuel W., born July 25, 1873, a clerk in Oneonta; Mary Jane Eliza, born December 23, 1875, now at the Normal School of Oneonta.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Russell are members of the Reformed Presbyterian church, in which the former has been an Elder for twenty-one years. He is also the superintendent of the Sabbath-school, which latter office he has held for the last five years. Politics seem to have little or no interest for this man, who, for the same reasons stated in regard to his father, serves his country by settling an example of industry, sobriety, and thrift, rather than by taking an active part in State or national affairs."

It would seem as if Hester Taylor has died in 1842 and he has not remarried by 1850. Fletcher Davidson has furnished the information as to the children of Hester (Esther?) Taylor and William Taylor and the names of their spouses and from the above, we can fill in the approximate years of their birth and if I can find them in the 1880 or 1900 census, will have their definite months and dates of birth. cjmc]

"Obituary - William T. Russell. William T. Russell died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Rothensies Sunday, November 27, aged 84. Mr. Russell was taken ill a week before his death with erysipelas. Up to that time he had been remarkably active for a man of his years. Funeral services conducted by Rev. G. W. Nims were held from the Rothensies residence Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Russell was a native of Bovina and spent all his life in Delaware County. He was married three times. He is survived by ten children. By the first marriage, Harvey of Binghamton; Huldah, Mrs. Ferris Terry of Walton and Isaac of Trout Creek. Two of the children by his second wife survive him, Tillie, Mrs. Joseph Rothensies of Walton and Charles of Allegheny, Pa. A daughter, Mrs. David Rothensies died last year.

Six children of the last marriage are living, Cora, Mrs. Wm. Stewart of Johnston, N. Y.; Anna, Mrs. John Phelps of Buffalo, N. Y.; Orson and Ferris of Downsville; Nettie, Mrs. George Meritt of Downsville and Georgia, Mrs. Charles Gladstone of Shavertown. Also four brothers, Stephen and John of Meredith; James of Franklin, and Matthew of Deposit. Two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Russell of Rockland and Mrs. Fannie Ingraham of Cortland."

Ida Hanna sent me the copy of her grandmother's obituary from the local paper of Downsville, Delaware Co., NY (not dated) but Ida has written "1925."

"Mrs. Julia Bresee Passes Away. Mrs. Julia Bresee, who for a few weeks has been in declining health, died early Monday morning, March 9, at about 12:20 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Gladstone, from old age and a general breaking down. She was about 85 years of age, and besides several years spent at Hartwick, had been a resident of this town many years. She was thrice married. By her first husband, she leaves one son, William Bresee of Binghamton, and by her second husband six children, as follows, Mrs. Anna Phillips of Omaha, Nebraska, Mrs. Cora Stewart of Johnsons, N. Y., Mrs. George J. Merritt, Mrs. C. R. Gladstone, Orson Russell and Ferris Russell of this village. Funeral services were held Wednesday, from the home, Rev. William Tatlock, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating, Interment at Hartwick, where her last husband is buried. Deceased was a highly esteemed and respected resident, and many friends living in distant places who knew her well years ago as well as those nearer her home, will learn of her demise with deep regret.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church of this village."

Russell died Thursday night, February 12, at his home on the D. W. Rothensies Farm, below Delhi, after a short illness. He was 61 years of age. Mr. Russell was a son of William T. Russell, who died in Walton about ten years ago. Much of his early life was spent with his uncle, Dumond Swart, on a farm in McGibbon Hollow, East Brook. For the past five years he was a resident of Middlefield, Otsego County, coming to Delhi last fall to take charge of the Rothensies farm as superintendent. (Paragraph) His wife, who before her marriage was Miss Ella Barnhart, died two years ago. One daughter, Adaline Ingles, survives him. Mrs. J. Rothensies of Walton is a half sister. The funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Paragraph Mr. Russell in early life united with the Baptist church of which he was always a devoted member. "A Sad Affliction. We are sure that the sympathy of this entire community goes out to the family of Joseph Rothensies in their terrible bereavement, in the death of their little son, Aron Rothensies, who died of cerebral hemorrhage and convulsions on Monday, aged about thirteen years. He went to bed Sunday evening in good health, and at 12 o'clock Monday night death had claimed the once bright, joyous, companionable boy. All that medical skill could do was of no avail; parental love and affection could not ward off the coming blow. The once happy home, made brighter by his presence and companionship, is now shadowed in gloom. The funeral will be held today at 2'clock p.m. from the Congregational church."

Obituary from newspaper given to me by Ida Hanna: "Mrs. David Rothensies died at her home on Platt street, Walton, July 17, 1903 of pleuro-pneumonia in the 43rd year of her age. She had not been feeling as well as usual for several weeks but had been about her household duties until the Saturday before her death, when she was taken ill with pleurisy. Her condition was not such as to cause serious alarm for a few days, but on Thursday pneumonia developed, she grew rapidly worse and a counsel of doctors was called.

Everything that could be done to relieve her sufferings and prolong the life so dear to them all, was done by her heart-broken family and friends who watched over her all that night, hoping against hope that she might be spared to them. But medical skill and loving care proved fruitless. Death came Friday morning about 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Rothensies was a native of Hamden and her maiden name was Ida Jeanette Russell. She was a daughter of William Russell. In September, 1880, she married David Rothensies. They lived for a number of years in Downsville, removing from there to Middletown, where they resided two years. Eleven years ago they came to Walton where they have since lived. The deceased has one sister, Mrs. Joseph Rothensies of Walton, and one brother, Charles, living at Caneadea, N. Y. Her half brothers and sisters are Mrs. Ferris Terry of Walton, Isaac Russell of Trout Creek, Mrs.

William Stewart of Middletown, Orson Russell of Downsville, Mrs. George Merritt of Brooklyn, Mrs. Charles Gladstone of Shavertown, Mrs. John Phillips of Oneida, Ferris Russell of Chester, and Harvey, living near Binghamton. Of this large family, she is the first to be called away by death. Her father, too, is still living and resides in Walton at the home of Joseph Rothensies.

Mrs. Rothensies was in every way a beautiful character, and was beloved by a large circle of relatives and friends. Her gentle presence will be missed by all who knew her, but especially by her husband and three young sons, Leo, aged 16, Charles aged 12 and Walter, aged 8 years, to whom she was a devoted and model wife and mother.

Rev. G. W. Nims conducted the funeral service at the house Sunday afternoon. It was largely attended. Many beautiful floral tributes were brought among them being three floral pillows, also a wreath sent by friends in New York. The interment was in the Walton cemetery."

"DAVID ROTHENSIES VINDICATED

GRAND JURY FIND NO INDICTMENT AGAINST HIM - SELLING DELHI PROPERTY

The grand jury at Syracuse last week failed to find an indictment against David W. Rothensies. Mr. Rothensies was charged with having sold $100,000 worth of stock in a manufacturing concern in which he is interested for $10,000, when it was claimed the actual value was known by him to be only about one tenth of that amount.

His prosecutors made him considerable trouble, but he maintained from the first that it was an attempt to injure him and get control of the business in which he is largely interested, and fought ever step of the proceedings. He brought counter-charges against his prosecutors, but after having done him all the harm they could, they discreetly remained out of the state.

The company, which has a patent for manufacturing paint from smoke, is located at Cortland, where they purchased the plant of the Cortland Wagon Works, paying $75,000 for it. The litigation was a bad blow to the business which was just getting started.

Mr. Rothensies has sold the Meeker farm below Delhi to Archibald Dodds, a former Colchester man, who later moved to Delhi and until recently has held a government position in New York city. Mr. Dodds is given immediate possession.

Mr. Rothensies has paid up all the claims for labor, supplies, etc. filed against him at Delhi when the litigation was started."

[Copy of obituary also sent by Ida Hanna but not dated. cjm]

"Mr. David Rothensies died Monday night, May 19th, aged 75 years. Mr. Rothensies had been in ill health some time, but was around town Saturday. During the night he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. Sunday afternoon he lapsed in unconsciousness and the end came Monday night.

Mr. Rothensies was born in Zwingenberg, Germany and came to America in 1854. He conducted a large store at Downsville for a number of years and later a cigar factory. He was postmaster there under Cleveland's administration. About twenty years ago he removed to Walton, where he was in the cigar business until he retired. His wife died ten years ago, after which he gave up active business.

The funeral service was held Thursday afternoon a 2 o'clock at the home of his brother Joseph Rothensies, Rev. I. M. Foster officiating. Burial in the Walton cemetery. Mr. Rothensies is survived by three sons, Leo of Wilmington, Del., Charles at home, and Walter, a student in Hamilton College, at Clinton, N. Y.; also by two brothers, Joseph of Walton, and Aaron, who lives near Frankfort, Germany. Mr. Rothensies was a man of a gentle and kindly nature.

He was deeply attached to those nearest him, and his quiet and genuine interest in the welfare of all his townsmen will be long remembered by them. He has left a pleasant memory with many."

26June1894 Downsville News Tuesday - Orson E. Russell and Josephine Pangburn married at Methodist Episcopalian Parsonage on Thursday June 21st 1894 by Reverend J. S. Graham.

Great Nephew Merritt Russell wrote about his great uncle: "I do not recall much first hand about my grandfather's brother but learned a few 'stories' about him from his daughter Pauline.

Orson was a kind, gentle and generous man - never violent in his family discipline. Once Pauline took some money (small change) without asking. However, Orson only sat her down and talked to her and made her feel very bad. Orson would give Pauline money, often a quarter or two, when they attended the local fair or holiday parades. Other children would have only pennies, or no money at all, and Pauline would share her quarter with these children."

Her father, Orson (brother to my grandfather) owned a small farm at that location. She died in 1997 at the age of 93 years of age.

Pauline graduated from Downsville Central School when she was 15 as one of that institutions youngest graduates. She worked locally for one year since no college would take her being so young. She then attended Eastman Business School in Poughkeepsie NY. She worked for different banks in New York State and later moved to Florida where she continued to work in banking. The bank was located across from the 'stock mrket' which she visited every noon during her lunch break. This 'hobby' of buying and selling stock continued until she died..

As a youngster she and my dad would play a lot together. They would go 'fishing' and at times would 'finger' trout (catching trout by using their hands) under the banks along the small stream located near their home."

Grandson Merritt Russell shares his memories of his grandparents.

MY GRANDFATHER FERRIS TAYLOR RUSSELL.

My memories of grandpa are that he was a 'great' pinochle player. His occupations were several during his lifetime. He was the first manager of the Downsville Victory Market Store #90 during the depression. He was a manager at the local creamery and in his later years, was a bartender at the Eagle Hotel in Downsville. He was an avid hunter and fisherman.

My Dad recorded several interesting hunting stories. When Ferris went hunting, he would take a sugar sack and collected chestnuts which were stored in a bushel basket in the attic for years. Grandpa hunted small game such as rabbits and partridges. He taught Dad to make a mating call sound for partridge by patting his chest. He had a rabbit dog called 'Sport' which was one of the best hunting dogs in the area. Grandpa had a ferret which he used to take hunting with him. He carried this animal in sack so it wouldn't bite him. He would let the ferret chase the rabbit out of its underground hole. Grandpa took Dad hunting with him at an early age - Dad told me that Grandpa would carry him a lot up and down the hills because of his bad leg.

My Dad said that Grandpa summed up the political two party system as follows: 'If you have to work for a living, be a Democrat. If you have money, be a Republican.'

Grandpa taught my Dad everything about trout fishing as he was one of the best in the area. The limit back in the 'old days' was 40 trout and later it was changed to 20."

MY RECOLLECTIONS OF MARTHA (LIDDLE) RUSSELL

Grandma was home most of the time and since Mom drove Dad around during the day in his work, Grandma was responsible for my brother and me during the day. She did a lot of baking for local restaurants and made wonderful molasses cookies which I just loved - they were so soft and delicious! I used to like to eat the cookie batter before it was made into cookies. Sometimes when she would go downtown, when we boys were younger, she would tie us up to a tree in our backyard - I (Merritt) can remember getting loose one day and wandering all the way down to the old fire house (actually it was only around the corner and down the main street a short distance.) My rear end got 'blistered' that day for sure!

She also cleaned house and 'babysat' for the Johnsons - family up the street on the corner - until she died.

She also loved to play pinochle. We played several nights a week at home with our own family and she belonged to several card clubs. She played cards right up to the time she died. Matter of fact, during the last card game she ever played, she had a heart attack and would not stop playing cards until she finished playing the 'hand' she was dealt. They persuaded her to lay down on a couch at which time she said 'I think I'm dying' and then went into a coma. Three days later she died at age 89, in Walton Hospital.

My brother, Lockhart, was very close to Grandma and sat many hours talking to her.

"MY RECOLLECTIONS OF WILLIAM LOCKHART RUSSELL.

Dad loved his sports, having played baseball, basketball and football while in high school at a private school (Hoosic in Connecticut). Later he continued baseball which he loved most. In adult life he played town team baseball and then coached both Little League and town team ball.

When Dad was a young boy he broke his leg in wagon wheel accident. A local doctor set it but didn't do a very good job and he ended up with a 'club' foot and had to wear a leg brace for awhile.

A wealthy lady named Miss Gerry, found out about him through the Episcopal Church - came to Downsville to his parents' house to offer her help in getting Dad's leg better. She said that she would send him to New York City for an operation that would restore the use of his leg - send him to school there and to a private school (Hoosic.) She also sent him to Pratt Institute, an art school in N. Y. C. At the age of 21, she wanted to send him to a Texas Art School but he refused - had a 'falling out' with Miss Gerry and came home to stay.

While at Hoosic School in Connecticut, he played baseball and football. The football coach saw Dad throwing a football on the sidelines at practice. Dad was throwing the ball further than anyone else so he 'drafted' him to play on the team. Dad ended up playing quarterback and in 1923, the team had a perfect season winning all their games - Dad was given a small 'gold' inscribed football which my brother has now. In baseball, at Hoosic, he pitched a no-hit, no-run game. He was a 'fierce' competitor and hated to lose.

My Mom and Dad never owned their own home. They lived with Dad's parents Ferris and Martha Russell on Union Street in Downsville. They did buy a 'lot' on the 'Neff' hillside just below Downsville but never built a home there. My Dad was an avid hunter fisherman and took me (Merritt) with him many times. I went fishing the most with Dad although I hated the 'bugs' - I loaded myself up with bug repellent and still got bit! We went fishing a lot at night which I didn't like all that well since I was afraid I would fall in, although we fished mainly by the small brooks around Downsville. He caught a 'trophy' size brown trout in the Old Mill Dam Pond, just above the bridge downtown. It was at night and took him over minutes to land it. It is mounted and is still in our family.

In the Depression, Mom and Dad went across the country to Oregon to find a job working in a post office. That did not work out very well and they came home during the winter driving a car. I can remember Dad saying at times he had to melt holes in the ice on the window so Mom could see where she was driving."

"MY RECOLLECTIONS OF FLORENCE (ALDRICH) RUSSELL

Mom was loved by everyone. She was active in the Presbyterian Church in Downsville - loved to sing in the choir (she had a wonderful alto voice just like her mother Lulu.) She ran for town tax collector as a Democrat in a heavily Republican area and won several times. She drove my Dad around in his job as federal income tax collector because he could not drive. Her first job was as a bank teller in the Hancock First National Bank after she graduated from Walton High School and then Ridley-Lowell Business School in Binghamton. Later on in life she worked in the Walton Bank as a teller until she died.

She loved flowers, especially African Violets, and worked in our small backyard garden. She loved colorful costume jewelry and clothes. Mom and Dad loved horse racing and attended the races in Monticello. She was allergic to insect bites - I remember one time she got a bumblebee sting on her leg and it swelled up quite a bit.

Mom died from cancer when she was 59 in Walton Hospital with Dad at her side. Dad had to ask for her wedding ring back after it was taken from her hand by someone attending her body right after she died.

SMITH W. REED, M.D., is among the best-known residents of the village of Margaretville, in the town of Middletown, where he has for many years pursued his profession, alike with profit to himself and benefit to others. His grandfather, William Reed, came from New England, and settled in Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, where he bought a farm, upon which he worked as a pioneer. He served in the War of 1812, was a Democrat in politics, and lived to be eighty-five. His eight children were Oliver, William, Amos, Aaron, Ebenezer, Henry, Lydia, and Esther Reed.

Oliver Reed, William's eldest son, was born in New London, Conn. He came early to Delaware County, and hired a farm in Roxbury, where he married Eunice Dulong, daughter of John Dulong, a Delaware County farmer, who lived till the latter part of the nineteenth century. During the War of 1812 Oliver Reed did military duty for three months at Sackett's Harbor. Later he removed to Cortland County, where he died at the age of eighty-four, his wife living to be three years older. Both were members of the Presbyterian church. He was at first a Democrat, but later became a Republican. They had a large family of thirteen children, ten living to maturity. Esther Reed married a farmer named Abram Blumberg, and had four children. William Reed died in our Civil War, fighting bravely in the One Hundred and Sixty-fifth New York Regiment of Volunteers. John Dulong Reed lives with his family in Michigan. Aaron D. Reed became a physician, married Marian Hubbell, and died in Cortland County, New York, leaving two children. Lydia Reed married Peter Baljea, lives in Cortland County, and has two children. Phebe Reed is the wife of Loren Cole, a Michigan farmer. Dr. S. W. Reed is the subject of this sketch. Polly Reed is married to Chapman Grinnell, a Tompkins County farmer. Orin C. Reed married Mary Ann Russell, and was killed in the Rebellion of 1861-65, leaving one child. Sherman S. Reed married Miss Fanny Pierce, and lives in Tioga County.

Smith W. Reed was born in Roxbury, June 21, 1830. He was educated in the Roxbury common schools, and in the Delaware Institute at Franklin. In the fall of 1850, when twenty years of age, he came to Margaretville, in order to study medicine with his elder brother Aaron, and subsequently received a diploma at the Vermont Medical College in 1854. After practising in the same town with his brother for a year, the young man went to the town of Liberty in Sullivan County, but did not stay there long, for he found a stronger attraction in his old field, where he was already so well and kindly known; and there he has ever since remained, having the largest practice in the neighborhood. In 1890 he opened a drug store, one on the finest business places in the village; and in 1867 he built a very large house on Walnut Street, where he has since resided. In fact, he built this residence in consequence of his marriage, which had taken place in 1865. The bride was Harriett A. Dumond; but, she dying at the early age of nineteen, the Doctor was again married, the bride being Frances A. Dumond, an aunt of his first wife, and the daughter of Cornelius and Sylvia (Wood) Dumond. Of this union have come four children, namely: Harriet Amanda Reed, who died young; Randolph R. Reed, Emma Dumond Reed, and Smith W. Reed, Jr., who are all at home. The doctor is a Democrat, and has thirteen times filled the office of Supervisor of the town.

The present Mrs. Reed was born December 8, 1846. Her grandfather was Egnos Dumond; and from him the genealogy runs back lineally through Peter, Egnos, and John, to Waldron Dumond, a native of France, who was exiled in the religious troubles, and married his wife in Holland. At first the name was spelled de Mont, then Du Mond, and finally Dumond. Waldron Dumond settled on Long Island as a farmer. His first appearance in the records was on March 28, 1660, as a soldier in Netherlandish service, in the company of his noble honor, the Director- General, Peter Stuyvesant, then stationed at Esopus (Kingston), N.Y. Waldron was one of the Military Council, December 1, 1663. On January 13, 1664, he married Margaret Hendrix, widow of Arentsen Hendrix. His son John married Nelltye Van Vegden. Egnos, son of John, married November 13, 1725, Catherine Schuyler, daughter of David Schuyler and Eliza Rutgers. David Schuyler was Mayor of Albany in 1706 and 1707. His son, Peter, born about 1730, married Elsie Van Waggenen. Their son, Egnos Dumond, was born in Shandaken village, and married Harriett Winnie. Their children were William, Egnos, James, Cornelius, Christian, Abraham, Harriet, Mary, Sally, and Anna. The parents were among the early settlers of New Kingston, Mr. Egnos Dumond receiving a tract of land in recompense for his Kingston house burned during the Revolution, in which he patriotically fought. Both he and he his wife lived to a good old age in Middletown, and belonged to the Dutch Reformed Church.

Cornelius Dumond was born in Shandaken, came with his father Egnos to Delaware County, and settled in New Kingston, where he bought a new farm of three hundred acres. His first wife was born in New Kingston. Her name was Mary Yaple, and she bore eight children: Harriet, Jane, John Yaple, Catherine, Mary, Phebe, Prudence, and Minerva Dumond. After her death, in middle life, he was again married to Sylvia Wood, daughter of Christian Wood, by whom he had one child, Frances A. Dumond, who became, as mentioned above, the second wife of Dr. Reed. Mr. Dumond continued nearly all his life on the farm now owned by John T. Archibald. He built first a log cabin, and then a frame house in place of the old building. He lived to be eighty-two, but his wife died ten years younger. In politics he was a Democrat, and both husband and wife were Presbyterians. Among their children still living are Jane, Mary, Catherine, and Prudence. Harriett Dumond married W. Sanford, and, dying, left five children. Jane Dumond married William Reynolds, and had ten children. John Yaple Dumond married Priscilla Hilton, and had six children. Catherine Dumond married Cornelius Vansiclen, and had nine children. Mary Dumond married William Palmateer, and had ten children. Phebe Dumond married Caleb Travis, and had three children. Prudence Dumond married Charles Macomber, and had ten children. Minerva Dumond married Peter F. Swart, and had six children. Both Doctor and Mrs. Reed have reason to be proud of their progenitors. The great English physician, Sir Benjamin Brodie, has well said, and it is a sentiment embodied in such lives as are commemorated in this sketch: -

"Nothing in this world is so good as usefulness. It binds your fellow- creatures to you, and you to them; it tends to the improvement of your own character, and it gives you a real importance in society, much beyond what any artificial station can bestow."

35(11)2 WILLIAM J. RUSSELL b June 1874 (c). This is the Will Russell whom Jeremiah Palmer referred to up on Palmer Hill in Meredith with the following story:

“For a couple of family stories, Will had a small crusher and apple pressthat each fall he would set up and make cider from the apples on his farm. There was a one-room school house nearby and all the kids would come at least once or twice to see the apples being squeezed and to help themselves to fresh cider as he was very kind to all. He also had a farm dog as most did but the dog was smarter than most, not only bringing in the cows but when all was done, the dog stayed in the carriage barn for the night. At that time no one had electricity, so Will would ask, are you in there Shep, and a Yip would be the answer. Will would then shut the door for the night.”

See Chapter 2. The Bible records sent by descendant Linda (Russell) Lohrum, record the children of Matthew Russell and only indicate two marriages for him being to Elizabeth Clap and Esther (McUmbler) Blackman. It is possible that the wife recorded with 36 Matthew Russell is this Jean/Jane Blakely. Also, believe her name was probably Jenette or Jeanette. cjmc]

[I found the following Matthew Russell listed on the U. S. 1850 census whose age matches 36 Matthew Russell's age and the Jane could possibly be Jean Blakely but the children do not correspond to those children David Hoy enumerated as being 36 Matthew Russell's children. Remember, David Hoy did his research not knowing the birth dates of Janet Pomphrey and William Russell I's children. Edwin Russell traced them back to Scotland and found their birth dates in the Ayrshire Parish Records. 36 Matthew Russell was b 7July1795. David Hoy wrote that James C. Russell was b 23Jan1808 and Matthew G. Russell was born 1806 thus, if so, then 36 Matthew Russell would have been eleven and thirteen years old when his first sons were born. Bible records sent by Linda Lohrum of her ancestor Matthew Russell born 20March1774 prove that the children named by David Hoy were not the children of this Matthew Russell. Carolee Inskeep wrote, in part, on 12 Nov 2002:

My great-great grandmother, Mary Ann Grant Dann, pasted obituaries, and other announcements, into a black notebook labeled "Collegian Compact Binder Refillable." When she died at the age of 101, in 1940, it passed to her grandson, J. Lewis DuMond. When Lewis died this spring, it passed to me. The pages are not numbered. No newspaper is named, but I'd guess that these all came from The Walton Reporter.

MRS. LEON SANFORD. From Franklin Correspondent. Mrs. Leon Sanford of Franklin passed away at the Parshall hospital at Oneonta Thursday morning, March 28, where she had been taken ten days previously. Mrs. Sanford's death was caused by uremic convulsions. Mrs. Sanford was born September 19, 1892, in Downsville, the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Levi Russell. On October 18, 1913, she was married to Leon C. Sanford and since that time Franklin has been her home. Mrs. Sanford was active in church and social work in Franklin and had a host of friends. Besides her husband she is survived by her parents and a sister, Mrs. Walter McIntosh of Franklin. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon in the Franklin Methodist church and was one of the largest funerals ever seen in that village. Her pastor, Rev. S. E. Sargeant, officiated. Burial was made in the Ouleout Valley cemetery.

CHAPTER II

DESCENDANTS OF POSSIBLY SARAH [] died 9August1813 AND JAMES RUSSELL Sr. died 13May1809 according to Bible records of their son MATTHEW RUSSELL Sr. born 20Mar1774, of Delaware Co. New York.

Mr. Hoy wrote that "There was another Russell family early in Bovina. The family consisted of James, Matthew, Agnes (Nancy), Stephen and Elizabeth." Then in 1995 your compiler heard from Linda Lohrum, 120 W. Halliburton Ct., Independence, MO 64050-4432 who had the Bible of her ancestor Mathew Russell which probably named the parents of the following children, to wit: Under "Deaths", the first names enumerated are "James Russell Sr. May 13th 1809" and "Sarah Russell Relect of James Russell Sr. Aug 9th 1813." It certainly appears as if these were the parents of Matthew born 20th of March 1774 as set forth in his Bible. I will assign #J1 to these probable parents. I will enclose copies of the Bible pages if I receive permission from Linda to whom we are indebted for sharing these Bible records. cjmc.

From Biographical Notices of the Town of Andes at page 122 in Munsell's History of Delaware Co., in a biographical sketch of a grandson of James Russell, we learn that James Russell came from Scotland in 1790.

Probably the James Russel listed on the 1800 census in Colchester Delaware Co. NY with only one male 26-45 (b between 1755 and 1774) and next to Matthew Russel on page 270.

"In the early part of the present century some families from Washington county New York, and others from Scotland settled in the district now the town of Bovina."

"...In October 1809, Dr. Bullions organized the congregation under the name of 'The Associate Presbyterian Church of Little Delaware,' with the following membership, viz: James Stoddard, Isaac Atkins, Walter Doig, William M'Gibbon, John Elliott, David Henderson, James Russell, Mrs. Elizabeth Doig, Mrs. Isaac Atkins, Mrs. Christina Elliott, and Mrs. William M'Gibbon..." [emphasis added. cjmc]

Not indexed on the 1810 census.

Again, from MHDC still on page 127:

"In the year 1810 Rev. Francis Pringle was sent by the presbytery to preach to the congregation. He remained about four weeks and preached in a barn on the farm now owned by John T. Miller. After this the congregation was almost entirely destitute of preaching until late in the fall of 1813, when Rev. Robert Laing preached a few Sabbaths at the school-house below the Lake mill. Mr. Laing remained during the winter, and preached in the house of Adam Scott, and also in the barn of James Russel, near Thomas H. Johnson's woolen-mill. About the 1st of February, 1814, the congregation elected as elders John Elliott, Walter Doig, David Henderson and James Russel, sen., and also united in a call for Rev. Robert Laing to become the pastor. The amount of salary promised in this call was $250, and he entered upon his labors as pastor of the conregation about the 1st of June, 1814. Immediate steps were taken to erect a meetinghouse, but it was not until the 10th day of May, 1815, that the first church building was raised. This was a substantial frame building, 36 by 30 feet, with a gallery, and stood on the south side of the 'old grave-yard lot,' about one-half mile from the present house of worship. It was not unil 1824 that this building was furnished with pews and pulpit; but on the second Sabbath of July, 1815, the Lord's Supper was dispensed in it for the first time; and then, and for years after, the carpenter's work-bench was used for a pulpit, and rough boards and blocks were used for communion table and seats. At this first communion the following persons united with the church, viz.: Francis Coulter, Thomas Liddle, Matthew Russel, Thomas Hamilton, James Archibald, sen., James Thomson, Robert Menzie, James Hastings, James Rutherford, Walter Renwick, Samuel H. Dean and their wives; also Mrs. Ann Dean, Miss Elizabeth Russel and Isabella Stoddard. As none of the eleven persons who had united with the church at its organization had died or removed, the congregation at this time must have numbered thirty six-persons."

Probably the James Russell Sr. listed on the U. S. 1820* census Bovina Delaware Co. NY at page 47 with:

- Two males under ten (b 1810-1820) [Alexander b 1815 and Henry b ?]
- One male 16-26 (b 1804-1810) [Matthew Russell b ?]
- One male 45+ (born before 1775) [James Russell b 1772]
- One female under ten (b 1810-1820) [Helen b 1812] Margaret & Sarah b ?]
- Three females 10-16 (b 1804-1810) [Margaret, Sarah and Jane b?]
- Three females 16-26 (b 1794-1804) [Elizabeth b ?, Lydia b 1803 and Agnes b ?]
- One female 26-45 (b 1775-1794) [Nancy Richie ?] *
- One female 45+ (b before 1775) [Possibly sister Elizabeth Russell?]

[The 1820 census, in many instances, was alphabetized and consequently, we cannot determine how close the six Russells enumerated in Bovina Delaware Co. NY lived in relationship to one another. There were five James Russells enumerated also on the 1820 census, two in Bovina, one in Kortright and two in Franklin. The only James Russell who was enumerated as being born before 1775 is this James Russell enumerated as Sr. The other four James Russells were enumerated as being born between 1775 and 1794.

1222 JAMES H. RUSSELL b 1832/1833 NY d unmarried a soldier in 1862. [DH]

From Munsell's History of Delaware Co. NY, Chapter XII Company I, 72nd Infantry, the first to leave Delaware County - History of the 71st pp 81-83, we learn: "James H. Russell died in Yorktown in 1862." and "Tuesday morning, June 4th, 1861, the first volunteer company, under command of Captain Robert T. Johnson, took its departure from Delaware county. At 9'oclock A. M. the company was formed in line in front of Edgerton's Hotel in the village of Delhi, where it was met by the Delhi Fire Department, led by a band of music, who escorted it through the principal s of the village. During the march the sidewalks were lined with people, everybody determined to catch a glimpse of he noble soldiers of old Delaware. Returning to the Edgerton House they were addressed in patriotic speeches by Messrs. Gordon and Hughston and Captain Johnson, and the national airs, Hail Columbia and the Star Spangled Banner, played b the band. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. D. Benedict. The company then took its departure amid the affectionate adius and hearty cheers of the excited crowd. Before leaving the ladies provided each soldier with a 'havelock.' The men were taken by teams to Hancock. They were accompanied by; members of the Fire Department and a number of citizens. They were met about two miles above Walton by the Fire Department of that village, who escorted them into town. The citizens of Walton provided them with a substantial dinner, and the people lined the streets and cheered them on as they passed through.

Their progress was one continued ovations until they reached Camp Scott, on Staten Island, where they were attached to the 3rd regiment, Excelsior Brigade, and designated as Company I..."

"The resources of the town are well developed, and the farms and farm buildings are equal to those of any town in the county.

The farm barn of A. T. McFarland is the best in the county. The basements are all of cut stone from the farm. The McFarland boys drew all the plans and performed the substantial labor, including the stone cutting. The building is one of the attractions of the town, and the register in the observatory bears the signatures of many prominent men who have been the guests of this genial and hospitable family..." MHDC at page 125 in Chapter regarding the Town of Bovina.

*Note: Elizabeth (Clap) Russell was born in 1778 according to Matthew's Bible so this must be she.

Sarah, the relect of James Russell Sr., did not die until 1813, who was probably the mother of Matthew Russell. Is this she since James Russell, Sr. died in 1809, living with her son?

From Munsell's History of Delaware Co. N. Y. at page 126 in the section entitled Trade Centers in the chapter on Bovina, it is written, in part:

"In 1802 Robert Scott built for Matthew Russell the first saw-mill and grist-mill. In 1833, it was abandoned and the building converted into a hop-house, and finally it is the hay-barn of James Johnson.

Thomas H. Johnson now owns and operates the woolen-mills where, in 1803, Robert Scott built a saw-mill and grist-mill. Mr. Johnson's old mill is near the site of a grist-mill built in 1801 by Robert Scott for Matthew Russell a pioneer. [emphasis added. cjmc]

14 ELIZABETH RUSSELL Mr. Hoy wrote that she was not married and was born 1876 but he must have meant 1776. There is an Elizabeth Russell buried in the Old United Presbyterian Church Cemetery at Bovina Delaware Co. NY according to David Hoy. Tombstone reads "Elizabeth Russell native of Scotland d Sept. 20 1840 aged 75 years. This age does not match what David Hoy wrote in his Russell compilation but it could possibly be her. cjmc.

[In Munsell's History of Delaware Co. N.Y. at page 127 a Miss Elizabeth Russel united with the United Presbyterian Church on the second Sabbath of July 1815 in Bovina along with Mathew Russel and James Thomson whom, I believe, were her brother and brother-in-law. cjmc]

*Enumerated as next is HH#1083-1116 is the family of Andrew T. McFarland and his wife 126 Jane Russell and their children. Jane is the niece of 15 Agnes (Russell) Thompson/Thomson. At HH#1081/1116 is Janetta Thompson 30 b Scotland with Margaret 3 b NY and James W. 7/12 b NY and an Ellen Clavenah [name not clear] 17 b Ireland. Wonder if this is a widowed daughter in law?

Then on the other side of the Jane and Andrew McFarland and their family enumerated as HH#1086/1117 is Thomas Russell 79 farmer b Ireland with Joanna 47 and Sarah 40 both born NY. Who is he? Could he be another son of Sarah [] and 1 James Russell and they lived in Ireland for awhile or could it be that who ever gave the information to the census taker thought he was born in Ireland. Approximate years of birth according to the census were Stephen 1763, James 1772, Matthew is a known birth of 1774, Elizabeth 1776 and Agnes 1780-86. This Thomas was born approximately in 1771 so he would fit in this family.
