Mrs. Rutulante was born Nov. 22, 1910 at Bedell to Leon and Orpha Kelly Woolheater and had spent her entire life in this area. She was married May 6, 1944 at Margaretville.

Leon Woolheater - (Jan 5, 1956 - date added)

Margaretville - Leon Woolheater, 70, died Tuesday in Margaretville Hospital following an illness.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow in Margaretville Methodist Church, with the Rev. Eugene L. Crabb officiating. Burial will be in Bedell Cemetery.

Mr. Woolheater was born Oct. 2, 1885 in Kelly Corners, son of Joseph and Mary E. (Dumond) Woolheater. He married Orpha Kelly, who survives.

Surviving besides his wife are one son, Cecil, Kelly Corners, one daughter, Mrs. Ercole Rutulante, Kelly Corners, and three grand-children.

Mrs. Mary E. Woolheater - (1927 - hand written date)

Mrs. Mary E. Woolheater died at the home of her son, Leon, at Kelly Corners, Monday, evening, June 13, after an illness of several years' duration with diabetes and other complications. While her more serious condition only lasted for the past few weeks he had been a victim to the disease for a long time and medical aid was unable to restore her to health.

She was born in New Kingston valley 65 years ago, a daughter of the late William DuMond and Hannah Williams., her mother dying when Mrs. Woolheater was one and on-half years of age. Forty some years ago she was united in marriage to Joseph Woolheater of Kelly Corners and to this union were born two children, Leon Woolheater of Kelly Corners, who conducts the old homestead farm, and Leslie E. Woolheater, who conducts a general store at Andes.

She was a woman well and favorably known, as there were but few homes in the community in which she lived that she had not been for some good purpose, for if some one was needed to stay with any member of a family as company or for other purposes she was called and did it with a spirit that made one feel that she was doing so willingly. Her husband, who is mentioned above, died about thirty years ago, leaving her with a very young family. She conducted the farm by hiring hired help and during her later years it was conducted by her son mentioned. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Estella Oliver of Bovina Center and Mrs. D. H. Gray of Merrifield, near Auburn; two half-brothers, Weed Dumond of Margaretville and Lavern at Lake Delaware. The children have lost a good mother and the neighborhood in which she lived have lost a good neighbor. The funeral was held at her late home Thursday afternoon at two clock with burial in the family plot at Kelly Corners. Elder Ruston officiated with Lattin of Margaretville funeral director.

Oscar Kelly Funeral Held Saturday Afternoon

Fleischmanns - Feb. 3 - Funeral services for Oscar Kelly were held at the Fleischmanns Methodist church on Saturday afternoon and were largely attended. The many floral tributes and numerous acts of kindness showed the esteem in which the deceased was held. He was a kind, loving husband and father, respected and loved by all who knew him.

Among those from out-of-town to attend the funeral were: Mr. And Mrs Elton DePuy, Mr. And Mrs. Charles Schrieber and Raymond DePuy of Accord; Mr. And Mrs John Schrieber, New Paltz; Mr. And Mrs. Earl Shout, Mr. And Mrs. Kenneth Mowers, Mrs. Roy Kelly, Oneonta; Herman Greene, Long Island, ; Sidney Greene, Miss Shirley Greene, Mrs. William Buchanan and John Tervay, Albany; Mr. And Mrs. Charles Mowers, Sidney; Mr. And Mrs. Jesse Finch, Vega; Mr. And Mrs. Stanley Mead and Julia Allen, Halcottville; Mr. And Mrs. George Rosa and Mrs. Percy White, Shandaken; Wilbur Johnson, Kelly Corners; Harold O'Connor, Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kelly, Denver; Mr. And Mrs. Fred Decker and Mr. And Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, Allaben.

Mrs. Elbert Rosa - (1935 - date hand written)

Mrs. Elbert Rosa passed away Wednesday May 22 at Margaretville. She entered the hospital late Monday suffering from intestinal obstruction. Mrs. Rosa has been in failing health for some time but her death was shock to the community.

Mrs. Rosa was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Barber Story and was born in Broad Street Hollow near Allaben, September 19, 1866. She lived a part of her life there, being married to Elbert Rosa March 14, 1885. About 28 years ago they moved to Delaware County.

Mrs. Rosa was a woman well liked and was of a amiable personality. She was a loving and devoted mother and a god neighbor, always willing to lend a helping hand.

Besides her husband she leaves the following children: Mrs. Emery Rider of Delhi, Mrs Will D. Coons of Shandaken, Mrs. Robert Hait of Halcottville, Mrs. Scott Sanford of Halcottville, Orville Rosa of Delhi, Mrs. Leonard Ford of Shandaken, Fred Rosa of Shandaken, Joseph Rosa of Delhi, Mrs. Harold Bouck of Halcott Center, Mrs. George Matthews of Bloomville and a son William died in infancy. She also leaves twenty-seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren besides a sister, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of Phoenicia, a brother Charles Story of Pepacton and another brother Irving Story of Roxbury.

The funeral was held at the Rosa home at one o'clock, services conducted by Rev. Van-Woert of Roxbury and burial in the Halcottville cemetery. - Kelly Corners Cor.

Mrs. Alexander Morrison - (1935 - date hand written)

Mrs. Jane Morrison, widow of Alexander Morrison, of Fleischmanns died May 23rd at her residence near that village. Mrs. Morrison's maiden name was Jane Lawson and she was born at Brown's Station, June 28th, 1855. On April 1st, 1875 she married Alexander Morrison, a prosperous farmer living near Fleischmanns. Of this union there were two sons, James, now deceased, and William who resides near Fleischmanns. Her husband passed away March 2, 1902.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were among the first in this vicinity to embark in the business of keeping summer boarders. They built the present Maple Grove house and were successful.

When they retired from the summer hotel business, they erected a beautiful residence on Main Street. Here Mrs. Morrison lived until she sold the property. In 1921 she erected a bungalow near the homes of her children on the Halcott road.

Mrs. Morrison was a member of the M.E. church in Fleischmanns and took great interest in church work having been on of the stewards of the church for a number of years. At the age of 80 years she was one of the oldest surviving members of the original Griffin Corners congregation that built the Fleischmanns church.

She caught a slight cold and was ill only a few days. The funeral services were conducted at the M.E. church by Rev. W. W. Williams. Interment in the family plot at the Clovesville cemetery.

She is survived by her son, William of Fleischmanns and a number of grandchildren.

J. H. Ballard - (1935 - Hand written)

Jonathan H. Ballard, son of Orville F. And Sarah F. Ballard, of Fleischmanns passed away at his residence at Clovesville Sunday, May 26. He was born on February 16, 1884 at Fleischmanns.

In 1902 he married Dora M. Beadle. Of this union there were three children, Christopher J., now deceased, Marion D., and Orville F.

For several years he operated one of the farms belonging to his family in Redkill. Later he engaged in the taxi business at Fleischmanns. While he has engaged in farming at Clovesville for the past ten years, last fall his failing health did not permit him to carry on his vocation, and he retired from active business pursuits.

Last week he caught a cold that developed into pneumonia which was the immediate cause of his death.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the residence. Interment was made in the family plot in the Clovesville cemetery.

While always attentive to business, Mr. Ballard was an enthusiastic sportsman and took great interest in athletics. In his youth he played for several years on the Fleischmanns baseball team, and until the team became an all professional one.

He is survived by his widow, the sons mentioned, one sister, Mrs. Albert Thompson and a grandchild. - Fleischmanns cor.

William Lawrence - (1935 - Date hand written)

William Lawrence passed away Saturday, May 25th at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ann Kelly, where he has been tenderly cared for. He has been at his home in Kelly Corners until two weeks ago. He had been suffering for some time with kidney and heart trouble.

William Lawrence was the son of Walter and Lola Warren Lawrence and was born January 22, 1865 at Halcott Center where he grew to manhood. He followed farming as his occupation. He was united in marriage to Miss Attie Gordon January 4th, 1893. She died four years ago. He spent his entire life in towns of Roxbury and Middletown, except a very few years.

Mr. Lawrence was always pleasant to meet with a cherry word of greeting and always willing to help. His pleasant personality made many friends for him.

There survive, besides the sister mentioned, Mrs. Clinton Morse of Denver, Miss R. Lawrence of Roxbury and two brothers, Jay of Prattsville and Edgar of Fleischmanns, besides many nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at home of Mrs. Ann Kelly with Rev. VanWoert of Roxbury in charge. - Kelly Corners Cor.

Earl Eugene Todd - (1935 - Hand written)

Earl Eugene Todd, son of John D. And Harriet E. Todd of Fleischmanns passed away at his home near the village on May 22. He was born December 3rd 1876 on Fleischmanns Heights. Here he spent his early years and manhood in operating a farm. He married Mary E. Gilgan of New York City in 1809. Of this union there two children, Marjorie H. (Now Mrs. George Fairbairn) and Cyrus E., who lives at the family home. The later years of his life after her retired from farming, were spent at Fleischmanns and Clovesville.

About three years ago, Mr. Todd suffered from a shock that retired him from active. Life. A recurrence of this illness was the immediate cause of his death.

The funeral services were held in the Catholic church of Fleischmanns on Saturday. The services were conducted by Father Gaffney. Interment in the family plot at Clovesville.

The deceased is survived by his widow, the daughter and son, above mentioned, two brothers, John D. Todd of Dry Brook, and three sisters, Mrs. Emma France of Pine Hill, Mrs. Mary Scudder of Roxbury, and Mrs. Olive Hart of Bayonne, N.J. - Fleischmanns Cor.

Dr. Lefkovics Dead (1935 - Hand written)

Dr. B. Lefkovics was brought to Arkville for burial on Tuesday. He died suddenly at his home in New York City on May 18. Dr. Lefkovics was one of the prominent physicians of New York City. The family built a summer home here many years ago and spent a greater part of the season in Arkville. Dr. Lefkovics was very active in the affairs of Mt. Siani hospital in New York City. He was known for his good deed to the poor. - Arkville Cor.

Bruce Raeder's Sister Is Second Crash Victim - (October 19, 1954 - Hand written)

Mrs. Jennie Wiltsie, 79, became the second fatality from an accident near Stamford last week in which a Roxbury car rammed a heavy utility truck. Mrs. Wiltsie, whose brother, Bruce Raeder, 83, of Roxbury died an hour after the crash, succumbed of her injuries Tuesday in Fox hospital at Oneonta.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Ouderkirk funeral home in Grand Gorge. Rev. R. E. Ritter officiated. Burial was in the Fairlawn cemetery in Prattsville.

Cupid Again Visits Andes (1911 - date added)

At high noon on Thursday, December fourteenth, the marriage of Miss Myrtle M. Muir of this town and Leslie E. Woolheater of Roxbury, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Muir on the Tremperskill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Kling, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of only the immediate family, the bride and groom standing beneath an arch of evergreens.

The house was decorated with evergreens and white carnations. The bride looked charming in a dress of light blue peu-de-soie, with silver trimming. The bride's going away gown was mulberry shade of poplin cloth, with long gray coat and white beaver hat.

Immediately after luncheon had been served the couple left by carriage for Delhi, where they took the 5 o'clock train for a wedding trip to Lockport and Niagara Falls. - Andes Recorder

Mr. Woolheater is well known here and has many friends who extend best wishes to him and to his bride.
